POET'S DAUGHTER KEEPS LONG VIGIL

Miss Junita Miller.

Living the life of a recluse in the heart of the Fruitvale hills, where her father penned the poems that made him famous, and tenderly caring for the trees and vines that he planted in life, Junita Miller, only daughter of the late bard of the Sierras, spends her time in communion through the verses with the spirit of the poet in his home on the "Hights," near Oakland, Cal.

She passes hours in the little chapel adjoining the cottage in the hollow of the hills. No mortal but herself has ever entered this sancand G. H. Gordon, Fifth ward—Business office county mail press, Court street; J. Robert Pollard, C. W. Leggett, and W. P. Goff.

A special committee on right of way for the Sixth street bridge reported adjustment with the Haymond heirs and Mrs. Emma L. Jackson and the Haymond heirs are to receive $3,000 to be paid by the city.

The proposed bridges will be across Elk at Sixth street and at Fourth street.

A petition for sidewalks on Terra Cotta street was referred to the street committee.

Proposals of compromise of damage suits by Mrs. Susan Gaylord and others brought because of alleged injury to property caused by water overflow were rejected on the ground that the overflow was no fault of the city.

A peanut vendor with automatic vendors stationed at various points in the city had no permit and the mayor told the council that he would have the machines removed.

MOUNT CLARE

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE)

MT. CLARE, Nov. 22.—Dr. W. T. Owens and Percy Cork played the "Nimrod" Friday and came in well loaded with game in the evening. The doctor had five rabbits to his credit.

Several of the citizens here butchered their hogs this week although the very warm weather the last few days is unfavorable for curing out the meat.

Mrs. W. T. Owens and Miss Edna Maxwell attended the musical entertainment at Clarksburg Friday night.

A citizen of Mt. Clare while being alone at home and while sitting on his porch Thursday evening was startled at hearing musical notes of his piano in the parlor. Knowing there was no person about the house, after listening to the intruder trying to run the scale several times he slipped to the door to behold a cat walking back and forth over the keys. The cat, which was seldom in the house, sprang out through a window as soon as it was discovered.

Ed. Dye, of Oklahoma, is calling on friends here.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the system strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Chronic Dyspepsia.

The following unsolicited testimonial should certainly be sufficient to give hope and courage to persons afflicted with chronic dyspepsia: "I have been a chronic dyspeptic for years, and of all the medicine I have taken, Chamberlain's Tablets have done me more good than anything else," says W. G. Mathison, No. 7 Sherman St., Hornellville, N. Y. For sale by all dealers.—Advertisement.

ELECTION

On Bond Issue for Bridge Funds Will Be Held Here in January.

An ordinance providing for a bond issue of $110,000 for bridge purposes and an election to ratify the same passed the city council Friday night and December 9 was fixed as the date of the election, but Saturday it was ascertained that there was a misunderstanding as to how long an election of the kind must be proclaimed. The period must be at least thirty days and Mayor Cole will call the council to meet Monday night and fix January 6 as the date for the election.

Election officers and the places for holding the election were chosen as follows:

First ward—A. A. Davis building, corner Linden avenue and East Pike street; P. J. Lyden, P. H. Shields and Martin Killeen.

Second ward—Monticello garage; W. A. Harrington, Robert Patterson and Charles G. Coffman.

Third ward—G. H. Gordon's office, North Third street; William B. Osburn, M. T. Burns and Jay Reefer.

Fourth ward—Armstrong's Club house; Thomas Patton, H. T. Wilson

Can you imagine how poor an impression is made on a business man by a work-hunter who personally comes to his office (merely in the course of random looking around) and asks for employment? Nowadays there are just two ways of reaching possible employers. One is to answer their "help and wanted" ads. in the Daily Telegram. The other is to get them to answer your "situation wanted" ad. Both methods are open to you.

The job you probably ought to have is apt to be advertised any day now. Whether or not you find and answer his special "help wanted" ad. may change the whole course of your life.

EARL'S ATTIRE

At the New Market Shows That He Outdoes Himself in Setting the Fashion.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)

LONDON, Nov. 22.—Lord Lonsdale, England's sporting earl, the man who sets the fashion for the regular patrons of the races courses and other places where sportsmen gather, and whose dress is one of the attractions to visitors at the Olympic horse show and other such occasions, has outdone himself this autumn.

At Newmarket the other day he wore what a writer of fashion truly described as "piquant." Here is a description of the earl's attire. "He wore a chocolate brown suit, with stripes of a darker color. The morning coat was full skirted but saucy, with a large flap pocket on either side and two large buttons at the back. His black bowler was slightly conical; his turn-over collar enclosed a tie of red, white and yellow; his waistcoat was white with yellow stripes, and was particularly long; his trousers were rather wide and turned up at the bottom, showing brown socks over patent leather shoes. His cigar was medium sized and worn without a band."

The West End tailors were ready with the chocolate brown suits, which are all the fashion this season, but the colored waistcoat and the tie have not yet been copied.
